MANDOLINA'S GOOD RACE.

A Saturday crowd of 3000 went out to Ingalls' Park yesterday. It was regaled with some shining racing.

A handicap at ten furlongs was the star bit of the afternoon, and, although Mandolina had something to spare at the finish, the race furnished a more than ordinary contest. It was a hot betting affair. The choice was always about 3 to 1. Cushing's Harry Shannon, with Caywood up, was perhaps the public choice. He ran a rather disappointing race, and landed third. Doctor G, under feather weight, cut out the running to the three-quarter pole, where there was a general closing up. About the eighth pole Barrett called on Mandolina, who won handily at the end.

Paul Griggs got this work out for the Detroit Derby in this race. Dorsey never urged the grey colt at any stage.

A very close and exciting finish came out of the fifth, a three-quarter selling race, Cossack and Preston leading in almost inseparable company. Ham was up on Cossack and "Cass" Sloan on Preston. The jockeys had a ding-dong struggle the last sixteenth. Ham rather out-finished Sloan at the end, but the Leigh horse cannot stand punishment and that balanced the account of horses and riders.

Tully Coulter's filly Gnome was favorite in the first race, and she should have won, but McHugh took a nap on her at the head of the stretch and Bonito, coming strong under punishment, won by a scant length. Gnome was the best and carelessness only lost the race for her.

Abuse won his race off by himself and Lizzie Cavalier had no trouble in winning hers.

The jumping race went to Phil Becker, who was played quite a bit by "Germany" Fink and his friends.

TURF CONGRESS MEETING.

The Turf Congress Board of Appeals and License Committee meet at Cincinnati next Sunday. The Board of Appeals is composed of Ed Corrigan, Milt Young and W. L. Schulte. The Committee on Licenses is made up of Capt. Rees, Joe Murphy and Secretary Hopper.

FORT ERIE'S STAKES DO WELL.

The stake events offered by the Fort Erie Jockey Club for its inaugural meeting, which begins June 18, closed well. They are as follows: Diamond Jubilee Stakes, $1,000, for two-year-olds, six furlongs; New Tift House Stakes, $1,000 for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth; Commission Merchants' Stakes, $1,000 for three-year-olds, one mile; Dominion Day Stakes, $800 added, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile; Independence Day Handicap, $1,200, for all ages, one mile and a sixteenth, and the Hunters' Red Coat Race, $1000, a steeplechase over the full course, about two miles and a half.

Referee Siler's Book.

George Siler, the referee of the recent fight between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons, at Carson City, Nev., March 17, with Lou M. Houseman, sporting editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean, as collaborator, has just issued a neat, graphically illustrated history of the big heavy-weight engagement. The book with illuminated cover, embraces a complete history of the fight and the circumstances leading up to it. Dan T. Stuart, the promoter of the contest, ordered the work from Siler and Houseman, and it is to be sold at all exhibitions of the pictures of the fight in America and abroad. An "edition du luxe," selling at twenty-five cents, will be supplemented by a popular edition, 10 cents. Chicago: W. J. Jefferson Print. & Pub. Co.
